

Journal of Higher Education Policy and Management

Instructions for Authors

The Journal of Higher Education Policy and Management welcomes contributions. JHEPM prefers papers to be no longer than 5000 words. This is to maximise the number of papers that can be published. JHEPM also invites short comments, reports and book reviews. The editor is happy to discuss with authors initial ideas and to review preliminary outlines and drafts of possible contributions.

Contributors should bear in mind that they are addressing an international audience.

Submission of papers and books for review.

Contributions should be submitted in MS Word format by email (ian.dobson@arts.monash.edu.au) or to jhepm@optusnet.com.au. Authors unable to submit papers electronically can address them to:

Style Guidelines

Authors should examine a copy of the Journal to see roughly what their paper should look like.

Papers (12pt Times New Roman) should be submitted as follows:

Title

Author/s

Affiliation/s

Corresponding author and contact details: email and contact 'phone number.

Abstract (100 – 150 words)

Bolded headings (predominantly lower case)

British or Australian English spelling and usage conventions should be followed. Use single quotation marks within double if needed.

Other style requirements:

- 's' rather than 'z' in words such as 'organise'
- 'per cent' rather than % when used in the text
- avoid abbreviations, except for universally-known organisations or processes
- do not use numbered paragraphs
- do not use headers or footers, except page numbers
- do not provide running heads
- do not use foot notes or end notes

References should follow the American Psychological Association system (APA Publications Manual, 5th edition), with the only exception that authors' names should be presented with roman letters, upper and lower case i.e. they should be indicated in the typescript by giving the authors' names, with the year of publication in parentheses, e.g. Smith (1994); or if there are more than two authors - Smith, et al. (1994). If several papers from the same author(s) and from the same year are cited, (a), (b), (c), etc. should be listed in full alphabetically at the end of the paper on a separate sheet in the following standard form:

For article: Cole, M. (1998). Globalization, modernisation and competitiveness: A critique of the new labour project in education. International Studies in Sociology of Education, 7(2), 315–332.

For book: Cochran-Smith, M., & Lytle, S. (1993). Inside/outside: Teacher research and knowledge. New York: Teachers College Press.

For chapter in edited book: Christensen, D. (1996). The professional knowledge-research base for teacher education. In J. Siluka, T. Buttery & E. Guyton (Eds.), Handbook of research on teacher education (2nd ed., pp. 38–52). New York: Macmillan.

Titles of journals should not be abbreviated.

We strongly encourage you to send the final, revised version of your article, electronically, by email. More help and guidelines on submitting articles already accepted for publication. Please note that this information applies only to authors whose articles have been reviewed, revised, and accepted for publication.

Proofs will be sent to authors, and should be dealt with quickly.

Copyright: It is a condition of publication that authors assign copyright or licence the publication rights in their articles, including abstracts, to the Association for Tertiary Education Management. This enables us to ensure full copyright protection and to disseminate the article, and of course the Journal, to the widest possible readership in print and electronic formats as appropriate. Authors retain many rights under the Taylor & Francis rights policies, which can be found at www.informaworld.com/authors_journals_copyright_position. Authors are themselves responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce copyright material from other sources.

Free article access: Corresponding authors can receive 50 free reprints, free online access to their article through our website (www.informaworld.com) and a complimentary copy of the issue containing their article. Complimentary reprints are available through Rightslink® and additional reprints can be ordered through Rightslink® when proofs are received.
